AIE 3010: Science of hadith al bukhari & Moroccan dialect

Araland-Summer 2019

8 weeks program

- UNES vision

“Universal Network For Educational Services actively works to educate global and responsible citizens who participate in the development of national and international communities. We have the duty to help students reach their full potential and thrive.

We will overcome all obstacles to fulfill our founding mission “ Enable brilliant students to study what they want, where they want.” Our dedicated team will work hard to serve those students while putting their safety and comfort as a priority.”

- Prerequisite

- Advanced arabic, (ARA 200+). Fluency in Arabic or Arabic as a language of instruction may fulfill this prerequisite.
- IE 101, 200+: Introduction to Islamic education, Modern Islamic thoughts or previous classes within the an Islamic education department.

- Course Description

This course is an analysis of Sahih Al bukhari, one of the Kutub al-Sittah of Sunni Islam combined with an introduction to the Moroccan dialect. It provides an in-depth study of the chief concepts of Sahih al bukhari. Therefore, it will be examined from the perspective of an experienced professor. The class will analyze the interplay of numerous factors that help us to critically understand the hadith. Al-Bukhari dedicated 16 years to collecting trustworthy hadiths from a collection of nearly 600,000 narrations. The book covers all aspects of life and provide proper guidance of Islam derived from the Prophet Muhammad.

The Arabic classes seek to develop the student’s linguistic, analytical and cultural skills. They are intended to help you fully benefit from your stay and appreciate the Moroccan muslim culture. It will fully immerse you while interacting with your peer local students.

The empirical aim of intertwining the Moroccan dialect & Sahih al bukhari is contribute to the education of a good practicing Muslim who is a committed citizen yet global in his endeavours and contributions.

This is an advanced and intensive class. Therefore, students are responsible for completing the assignments and devoting a considerable amount of time to keep up with the accelerated pace of the course.

- Instructors

Your Moroccan dialect course will be taught by a native speaker who has experience in teaching the language for international students. Professors are able to speak english and will answer your subtle and nuanced questions comfortably.

Your Islamic education professors are graduates from the prestigious Dar Al hadith al hassania and the Mohammed 6 Institute for Quranic studies, which are both supervised by his highness the King Mohammed 6. Those two institutions are highly competitive with a class size of 40 local students and 4 international students. Therefore, the education and selection of professors is of a premium quality.
